To whom it may concern,

Darius Chung has been with us since March as a Freight Agent and has since been able to land some great accounts and inspire many with his success in this business in such a short period of time. We've trained hundreds of candidates to work with us but only a select few have had the grit and determination to be great at what we do, Darius being a part of that select few. Our other agents lean on him for moral support, direction when they are lost and inspiration when they are losing hope.

In the past month alone Darius has done almost $100k in sales and making a great income in doing so. He has such great potential in this industry not only as a salesman but as a leader. He is patient, a self starter and a great asset in our company.

Best regards,

Devan Hudson
